MEMORANDUM FOR THE NATIONAL CADET ADVISORY COUNCIL

FROM: C/Lt Col Zachary King

SUBJECT: C/Lt Col Zachary King, Candidate for Chairperson - Election Platform - "7 Points for Success"

The following content of this memorandum outlines the ideals and goals that I, Zachary Z. King, would strive for as Chairperson of the National Cadet Advisory Council, if elected.

If elected to serve as NCAC Chairperson for the 2009-2010 term, the agenda for my administration can be summarized in the following seven action items:

1. To solidify the National CAC structure on all levels; to ensure that the appointment of and communication with incoming representatives is well established prior to the start of the new term, and in turn, to ensure continuity is maintained with replacements of outgoing representatives, come the close of the 2009-2010 term.
2. To utilize current and future technology to its greatest potential and highest level of efficiency in meeting the needs of the Council. If we do not utilize the amazing technological tools available at our disposal, we shall be behind the curve.
3. To make all of Civil Air Patrol more aware of the capabilities of CAC and to develop an external desire for the application of the CAC's constructive input on all aspects of the Cadet Program, and on various elements of the organization as a whole.
4. To further enhance communication. Civil Air Patrol cannot survive without concise and continual communication up and down our established communication channels. CAC is one of those channels, and we must do our part to ensure that first, all positions are filled so that there is someone at each level and in each geographic area to establish communication with, and secondly that mutual communication is a constant.
5. To market the NCAC; we need a new face for our new and rightful place, at the forefront of the Civil Air Patrol Cadet Program!
6. To continue to build impeccable rapport with political and military contacts.
7. To increase funding by utilizing our networks, connections, and recourses to their fullest potential.

My goal is to make us the reliable, 'go-to' organizational body, representing the Cadet Corps in partnering with the National Board and National Executive Committee, and the entire Senior Member Corps.

I am honored to be considered, and I thank you for your time! This program has given me amazing opportunities over the past seven years of my cadet career, and it is my dream to see those within the program continually strive for its improvement!
